

PRESS RELEASE

For Release: Immediate
Date: August 1, 2011
For further information please contact: David Killeen, Town Planner, 203-385-4017
Topic: SUMMER ARTS FESTIVAL SEEKS VOLUNTEERS!

The Town of Stratford and Festival! Stratford 2011 have announced that volunteers are needed to assist with the Sixth Annual summer arts festival to be held on the grounds of the American (Shakespeare) Festival Theatre, 1850 Elm Street from Thursday, August 11 to Sunday, August 21, 2011.

The Town is seeking volunteers for this event to assist with ushering, parking management, staffing, vending, donations/raffle and main stage support. Organizers expect an increased demand for volunteers this year and are asking for upwards of 29 volunteers to assist with each performance.

The Festival will include the following performances on the grounds of the American Festival (Shakespeare) Theatre:

- A Midsummer Night's Dream, produced by Shakesperience Productions, Inc.
- Tymon of Athens, produced by the Hudson Shakespeare Company
- Quickies in the Park, produced by SquareWrights
- Shakespeare in the Garden, by The Players at Putney Gardens
- Dr. Joe Utterbach and the Sister Cities Chorus
- Broadway Meets the Bard, hosted by Mark Goldstein and featuring Broadway's Jerold Goldstein, Annie Edgerton & more!
- Bridgeport Theatre Company
- Temple Players
- ... and so much more!

A complete schedule of performances can be seen at <http://festivalstratford.org/>

To volunteer, please contact Town Planner Dave Killeen at 203.385.4017 or dkilleen@townofstratford.com. Visit <http://festivalstratford.org/> for complete schedule information for the Festival.

 end **